★ This is a good article! ★

This is an article that is regarded as very well presented and of high quality. It uses a format that all users should follow.

I AM, said the Voice, THAT I AM.
It spoke not in English, nor Latin nor Hebrew nor Greek. Its logos was supreme – all words, songs and languages that would ever come to be. The Word rang from the Void and raced out from the Heavens, filling the Nothing with All.

ORDER OF HERMES

Thou art a part of me. I cannot deny thee now. For as there is pleasure, there must be pain; as there is joy, there must be anguish. Each thing that lives must die, each dead thing must arise again. For I am All, and no thing is outside me.

Background

I AM THAT I AM (also referred to as Essential Divinity) is the indefinable essence that pervades Creation. It transcends names and definitions, with any identity trying to be assigned to it merely becoming something lesser than what it is supposed to be. As ineffable things go, this one is at the top. Its aspect, Jehovah, is the Supreme Creator whose word caused The All to be created out of the dying silence of the Void.

Can shortcut nearby electrical systems (<https://gyazo.com/62bd842f35a3db725964b685640c3be7>)), Telepathy (Can project images and impressions, or speak directly into a subject's mind (<https://gyazo.com/da9ffa900bcff74452e256809de25f57>). Can project thoughts (<https://gyazo.com/4595072ea6fdf5339f1a41ec337a5ce3>)), Vibration Manipulation (Can cause the earth to shake, rattle, and roll (<https://gyazo.com/cc454768c61> 39e87d342fb4bd51450e1). Can create quakes and shockwaves (<https://gyazo.com/007e04507b261e40a6ec73a792f42062>)), Teleportation (Can disappear from its current location and appear somewhere far away (<https://gyazo.com/cc454768c6139e87d342fb4bd51450e1>)), Fear Manipulation (Can invoke a primal screaming fear, causing victims to tremble in soul-deep terror (<https://gyazo.com/ae89c604490e8c5b5fdaa8d1ede05e9f>)), Weather Manipulation (Can summon a storm, invoking high winds and driving rains (<https://gyazo.com/67910cfc6d145d708d2fef8600e07290>)), Avatar Creation, Magic, Non-Physical Interaction, Void Manipulation, Chaos Manipulation, Omniscience, Omnipresence Subjective Reality, Plot Manipulation (Mages can interact and manipulate hypernarratives, which are archetypal figures, tropes, or other elements that reoccur in human lore and media (<https://imgur.com/a/IUeH8bf>)), Information Manipulation (Magic is described as being akin to "the keyboard of Reality," which Mages as a whole access in order to hack at its underlying code (<https://imgur.com/a/ygYtrOT>)), Extrasensory Perception (Can sense things in the immediate vicinity even if it's not possible to perceive them with normal senses. Can estimate distance between objects, intuitively find a direction, notice hidden objects or characters, and spot spatial instabilities, such as warps, anomalies, wormholes, etc (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066363818629927045/correspondence_esp.png). Can perceive Quintessence (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066901866660769833/prime_energy.png). Archmages of Prime realize the ability to see Paradox manifest, not only in themselves and others but in reality as both disbelief and the domino effect. Their view of the interaction of Prime energy and Paradox also allows them to see when mages have entered Quiet. The Archmage can determine the source and nature of Paradox energies (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067242442623025303/prime_senses.png). The mage can read the local Gauntlet's thickness, discern auras, sense spirits of all types, peek into the Penumbra through the Vidare (see Chapters Three and Four), and determine whether or not a material object has a spiritual component. Combined with other Spheres, that mage can spot forces, places, or items with unusual ties to the spirit world, such as Awakened objects, elemental spirits, possessed organisms, Shallowings, Nodes, and so forth (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067245876378095706/spirit_sense.png). Temporal understanding begins with the mage's own perceptions of time. At this stage, she develops a precise internal clock and can spot the temporal ripples left behind by (or, in many cases, developing ahead of) Time Effects. Other phenomena, too, leave disturbances in the time-stream, and the mage can notice them as well. The mage can also detect the influence of the Time Sphere on other spells or Patterns too (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067260294025461880/time_sense.png). The mage can perceive the supernatural through the lens of Death. They see the weight of death around a person – not their likelihood of death (unless the subject has a terminal illness), but how often the subject has rubbed shoulders (knowingly or not) with the dead or dying. Those who have suffered the loss of many loved ones or who have killed many people tend to bear heavy burdens. This sight also applies to things or places (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1070129705623228456/mage_esp.png). In addition, the mage can perceive another's grief through a recent loss, and use this knowledge to manipulate that person's emotional vulnerability (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1070130350438756562/mage_esp2.png). The mage can see, hear and speak with ghosts, as well as detect their presence, if they are hiding or have chosen not to reveal themselves (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1070140182147375134/mage_esp3.png)).

Enhanced Senses (Mages have an innate "sixth sense" concerning all things supernatural. Their hair stands on end, goose bumps race along their arms, or a shiver runs up the spine. Regardless of the manner, their bodies react to the active presence of unseen forces, i.e., the use of a supernatural power, not simply the presence of a vampire or werewolf – unless it is using its powers (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1068306344727281765/mage_senses.png)). The mage can expand their senses across intervening space, sensing things in other locations. Such extensions leave minor ripples in space (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066364645499215882/correspondence_senses.png). Can spot weak spots in objects, people, and arguments, and use those imperfect yet profound insights to the mage's advantage (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066376462724235274/entropy_senses.png). Can sense the flow of forces in the environment. Can perceive the infrared, ultraviolet spectrums, notice electrons, see in the dark, view X-Rays, discern the flow of sound or radiowaves, spot kinetic energies, and hear frequencies beyond the normal human range (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066837563496734870/force_senses.png). Opening himself to the universal force, a mage can see the interactions of Force Patterns and their natural beginnings and endings. Though normal Force perceptions allow a mage to spot interactions of such Patterns, this level of Archmastery lets a mage draw connections between a Pattern and its origins, its interactions with other Patterns and its eventual destination. Such a broad view allows the mage to determine where and how to apply force for maximum effect with minimum effort. With the ability to sense universal forces, the mage's other Forces Effects become much more efficient. Perceiving Forces lets the mage trace a Force Pattern back to its origin or extrapolate its likely results. The mage can also direct other manifestations of Forces with half the usual required successes, as long as the mage has already activated universal perception (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067069378216071168/force_senses2.png). Can read the presence and health of nearby lifeforms. Can discern a living being's age, sex, and overall health. Can sense distant organisms, guess their potential for sickness or misfortune, perceive them through past or future states, or read the streams of Quintessence that bind them to the universe (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066882914823966730/life_sense.png). Can perceive the intrinsic properties of base materials – their underlying structure, innate properties, and integral stability or lack thereof. Can view the material composition of an object, note its less-obvious structures, find its hidden layers or spot its weak points. Can detect implants, enhancements, and other integrations of living tissue and inert materials (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066887639577395281/matter_senses.png). Can sense emotions and surface impulses of other people. Can perceive psychic impressions about a person, place, or object. Can guess the nature of weak Resonances signatures and read the stronger ones outright. Can scan auras, note mood shifts, discern truth from lies, or grasp someone's overall state of mind (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066895079127666839/mind_senses.png)), Stealth Mastery (The mage can suppress their own or another's personal aura. Effectively, they cause their aura to lapse into slumber, smoothing the telltale ripples it creates in the Tapestry and rendering it more difficult (or virtually impossible) to detect, save by the most puissant of sensory abilities (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1070145205845626940/mage_stealth.png). The mage can destroy all signs of their own aura. This destruction permanently removes all signature of the mage's current aura, such that it cannot be read by any magic (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1071034881620049930/mage_stealth2.png))), Spatial Manipulation (Can thicken space to cover tracks. Can grab small items or organisms, and pull them through tiny holes in space (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066365212116140062/correspondence_space.png). Can isolate forces, spaces, objects, or people into their own tiny realms, and impede or block from crossing into, or out of, the protected space. Can appear at several different places at once, with each self capable of being independant (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066365212116140062/correspondence_space.png)).

794048037748776/1066366660962959390/correspondence_space3.png). Distance and dimensions become irrelevant for the mage at this stage. Can distort space, alter sizes, and stretch or compress objects, bodies, or forces. Can connect different Patterns to one another across intervening space, or even superimpose places or objects on top of one another (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066367607915167866/correspondence_space4.png). Can reduce or increase the distance between any two objects. Can remove or add spaces to an area. Can create a strip or bubble of additional distance in an area, pulling Patterns like taffy with conjunctural magic in order to make them occupy the new distance. Conversely, the mage could collapse an area of space to a pinpoint, easily letting anyone cross it. The mage can effectively create space, generating a zone of emptiness that pushes existing space outward around it (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067059135453073459/correspondence_space5.png). Can move an object through space (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066888450957115482/matter_transmutation.png). Can bring overlapping Realms together, with no Gauntlet between. It is named for the mythical First Age, when all Realms were one. The mage can pull together overlapping Realms. Realms pulled together this way are not harmed and are treated as whole and complete locations where their inhabitants may interact. Typically, this functions only over a small area. When the Realms split apart again, creatures return to their native planes, even if they had somehow crossed over beforehand (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067258279400570930/spirit_realm2.png)), Portal Creation (The mage can tear holes in space, big enough for the user to pass through (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066365637577932880/correspondence_space2.png). Can tear Gateways into the Gauntlet, allowing groups or large objects to pass through, or close such breaches too (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/106725511943711296/spirit_npi4.png)), Teleportation (Can teleport things from a distance (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066365637577932880/correspondence_space2.png). Can travel anywhere through teleportation or co-location (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067061456077586562/correspondence_teleport.png)), Telekinesis (Can levitate and manipulate things from a distance (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066365637577932880/correspondence_space2.png)), BFR (Can isolate forces, spaces, objects, or people into their own tiny realms, and impede or block from crossing into, or out of, the protected space. Can appear at several different places at once, with each self capable of being independant (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066365637577932880/correspondence_space2.png)).

794048037748776/1066366660962959390/correspondence_space3.png)), Power Nullification (The mage can dispel any spell (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1071046657212420147/mage_powernull.png). Can temporarily negate the powers of a ward (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067060903113130084/correspondence_omnipresence.png). Reversing the powers of perception, the same mage can thicken the walls of time, which makes other Time Effects more difficult (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067261177522028564/time_sight2.png)), Precognition (Can see the currents of probability, predict dice throws, card draws, and other apparently random events (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066376462724235274/entropy_senses.png). The universe is an open book to the greatest students of Entropy. Chance and fate are writ large, and the supreme Archmaster recognizes no contradiction in luck, choice and predestination. Instead of simply manipulating the outcomes of probability, the mage can see the course of the Tellurian's every facet. The mage can watch the lines that influence all Patterns and the eventual end of being (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067067528884518933/entropy_destiny.png). Can look forward or backward through time. Although those impressions are fleeting, hazy, not entirely accurate, and bound by the limitations of that time and place (that is, what a bystander in that specific time and location could sense under the circumstances), they allow the Time-seer to catch glimpses of the past or future. By itself, this Effect allows the mage to see in her present location only. By combining Past/ Future Sight with other Spheres, however, she could read the probable past or future impressions of objects or places (Matter), living things (Life), and alternate locations (Correspondence). Entropy 2 even (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067260794850508851/time_sight.png) allows her to glimpse multiple futures and pick out the one most likely to occur (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067261177522028564/time_sight2.png)), Probability Manipulation (The mage can control the factors he could only sense before. Pulling the strings of apparently random events, the user can influence activities and results – directing the fall of dice or cards, repeatedly hitting weak spots, and directing people and things toward a conclusion of their choice (<https://imgur.com/a/10BjbS9>). Can gain total determinism over chance. Can affect the outcome of chance as long as some element of chance exists, this power lets the mage generate raw chaos or completely remove probability (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067063687900315728/entropy_probability3.png). Can invoke multiple probabilities (<https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/10672627704>

22226994/time_travel.png)), Corrosion Inducement (Can control the speed at which material objects fail or decay (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066381851381477436/entropy_physics_and_fate.png). Can decay objects almost instantly (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067240716213944340/prime_drain.png)), Fate Manipulation & Luck Manipulation (Can control the fate and fortune of objects and people, giving them good or bad luck (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066381851381477436/entropy_physics_and_fate.png). The mage can alter the Destiny Background freely, raising or lowering it, or even change the actual destiny. Scrying with this level of Entropy lets a mage determine a creature's Destiny as well (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067067528884518933/entropy_destiny.png)), Blessing, Curse Manipulation, Life Manipulation (Can bless, curse, and confer outright health or decay (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066382712564371476/entropy_decay.png). Can reassemble life from the nihilistic energy of death (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067066516228558928/entropy_death.png). Can create complex lifeforms (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066886623528243200/life_life5.png). While an Archmaster of Life has previously been able to mutate her Life Pattern at will, now he can transform others into forms of life he has studied before with no loss of the subject's intelligence. Even Masters of Life cannot create completely new forms of life, but with this understanding, an Archmage can create a Pattern that has no relation to any creature he has ever seen before. The Archmaster can also make Life Patterns that have unique properties not normally found in natural life – Patterns that subsist on base matter, that are unaffected by certain Forces or Matter Effects, or that interact with other life in strange and unpredictable ways. Strange new Patterns of Life can be created just like other life forms are made with lesser Life magic, and the mage can specify how they interact with other Patterns. Similarly, the mage can transform other life forms just as he could transform himself with his own Life Mastery, into nearly any form of creature with no loss of native intellect. Furthermore, massive Pattern manipulations are easier. The mage can affect whole groups of Patterns without difficulty, attaching a single Effect to all of them – healing everyone in an area or transforming a group of animals – just as easily as she could change a single creature (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067074087479935006/life_life6.png)), Disease Manipulation & Entropy Manipulation (By influencing the flow of entropy within a living body, the mage can grant outstanding vitality to, or inflict sudden disease upon, their subject (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067074087479935006/life_life6.png)).

37748776/1066382712564371476/entropy_decay.png]], Mind Manipulation & Memory Manipulation (Can degrade the patterns of thought. Can craft, perpetrate, reinforce, and undermine arguments, beliefs, and even memories (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066384347109801984/entropy_concept.png). Can give consciousness to lifeforms (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066886623528243200/life_life5.png). Can influence (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066897469268578396/mind_telepathy.png) another person's thoughts (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066897805853077504/mind_telepathy2.png). Can blast psychic assaults and inflict mental damage (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066897805853077504/mind_telepathy2.png). Can command another person's actions as well as their thoughts and mental state. Can set up posthypnotic suggestions and commands (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066898894740541500/mind_mind.png). Can change someone's memories (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066898894740541500/mind_mind.png). Can rewrite personalities and switch minds into another body (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066899677166977074/mind_creation.png). At this stage, the Archmage understands the Sleeper world as well as he understands the waking one. With care, he can guide his Avatar to repair his faults for tests in his next life. Just as a mage could sense the Avatar's past thoughts through the earliest applications of Mind, this power enables a mage to imprint thoughts, memories and impulses specifically onto his Avatar. The Avatar carries these images, playing them out in later lives and Seekings (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067081583057719346/mind_mind2.png). The province of the extremely rare mental Archmasters (or the extremely power hungry), One Mind gives access to all minds. The mage understands the inner workings of all the minds around him. He sees the reflection of every thought in the Quintessential flow of the Tellurian, opening his consciousness to a realm of total intuition. His Mind Pattern, no longer fettered to his Life Pattern, exists independently in the flow of the universal Mind. The mage at this level of Archmastery no longer requires a body. Even if his physical form is killed or his body destroyed, his Mind Pattern remains intact and able to float through any realm of consciousness. The mage can sense the emotions, intents and thoughts of nearly any creature, as with the lesser levels of Mind magic, but can also determine the general flow of multiple Mind Patterns. Thus, with a simple Effect bounded by an area, the mage can identify the tide of emotion over an entire group, the "gestalt mind" of a mob, species or collective (htt ps://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067082047551709224/mind_mind3.png)), Causality Manipulation (Can deny any change (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067063687900315728/entropy_probability3.png). Creatures and objects can be turned into totally static automata, rendering them unable to learn, grow, or change (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067064880764559391/entropy_cause.png). At this stage, the mage's abilities to alter the past are vastly improved. They become a dynamic force in the time stream, and can follow the course of time, greatly altering the present. The mage can easily step back further than any of their former Time abilities allowed them to see or alter (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067265298773848084/time_past2.png)), Chaos Manipulation (Can generate raw chaos (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067063687900315728/entropy_probability3.png)), Matter Manipulation (Can reduce an object or being to their component parts. Can disperse an object into randomly moving molecules, or assemble a form from scattered elements (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067063687900315728/entropy_probability3.png). At this level the mage can easily shift matter through various states. All necessary properties are altered to induce a change in state (solid, liquid, gas, plasma, ether) (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067078327271166002/matter_state.png). At this Sphere's pinnacle, the mage creates Matter Patterns that respond not to other physical Pattern forms but to etheric Patterns such as Mind. These Patterns alter their properties according to their pre-programmed responses to Mind or Spirit impulses. Thus, the mage can make Patterns that have certain properties to one person and different properties to another. The supreme Archmaster's command of Matter is so great that her creations appear differently to those who view them. She can have material properties, for instance, that are poisonous to specific Natures or Essences. The Matter Patterns can be keyed to respond to certain Spirit Effects or emanations of Prime, as desired (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067079933643456602/matter_pattern3.png)), Biological Manipulation (Can control the evolution of species through their Patterns (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067065461784715324/entropy_bio.png). Can radically alter simple organisms, transforming (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066884263699562526/life_life2.png) one into another (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066884457040203826/life_life3.png). Can radically change any complex organism (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066885827415777300/life_life4.png). Can adopt any form and may transform other organisms the same way (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066886623528243200/life_life5.png). Rotting Flesh rends and destroys the physical form of a living being, riddling it with corruption and putrefaction. Flesh corrodes and rots, bones twist, crack and turn to ash, and blood thickens with globs of corrupted tissue and rivulets of pus (<https://imgur.com/a/VDOYDGV>). Can suppress life in others temporarily (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1071045213612683264/mage_bio3.png)), Death Manipulation (The mage can reorder the powers of death to their liking (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067066516228558928/entropy_death.png)), Void Manipulation (Can halt Oblivion's hold on an object or creature. Can twist the progress of Oblivion. Can keep spirits of the dead from dissolving into the nothingness of the afterlife (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067066516228558928/entropy_death.png)), Disease Manipulation (Can halt the progress of diseases (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067066516228558928/entropy_death.png)), Cosmic Awareness (The universe is an open book to the greatest students of Entropy. Chance and fate are writ large, and the supreme Archmaster recognizes no contradiction in luck, choice and predestination. Instead of simply manipulating the outcomes of probability, the mage can see the course of the Tellurian's every facet. The mage can watch the lines that influence all Patterns and the eventual end of being (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067067528884518933/entropy_destiny.png). Opening himself to the universal force, a mage can see the interactions of Force Patterns and their natural beginnings and endings. Though normal Force perceptions allow a mage to spot interactions of such Patterns, this level of Archmastery lets a mage draw connections between a Pattern and its origins, its interactions with other Patterns and its eventual destination. Such a broad view allows the mage to determine where and how to apply force for maximum effect with minimum effort. With the ability to sense universal forces, the mage's other Forces Effects become much more efficient. Perceiving Forces lets the mage trace a Force Pattern back to its origin or extrapolate its likely results. The mage can also direct other manifestations of Forces with half the usual required successes, as long as the mage has already activated universal perception (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067069378216071168/force_senses2.png)), Sound Manipulation (Can mute or amplify sound. Can render things silent by bending soundwaves (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066838248053288990/force_energies.png)), Darkness Manipulation (Can gather, shape, or dispel shadows (<https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/>

1066838248053288990/force_energies.png). The mage can manipulate the active forces of darkness, giving form to existing shadows or thickening them. Mages use this spell to hide themselves from easy scrutiny, literally hiding in shadows, and even sculpting shadows to best cover themselves or an awkwardly shaped object that otherwise might jut out into the light under natural conditions (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1070139389591695462/mage_darkness.png). The mage can cause the darkness to move, even causing it to travel from its naturally occurring place to somewhere darkness could not possibly exist, such as beneath the direct glare of a lamp (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1070141467076612276/mage_darkness2.png). Can create darkness out of nothing (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1071030727929503825/mage_darkness3.png)), Light Manipulation (Can warp light to make things visible, change their colors by altering the spectrum of localized light (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066838248053288990/force_energies.png)), Electricity Manipulation (Can disrupt electric currents (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066838248053288990/force_energies.png)), Fire Manipulation (Can flare flames (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066838248053288990/force_energies.png). Can consume objects in Primal Flames (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067240716213944340/prime_drain.png)), Air Manipulation (Can direct the course of winds (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066838248053288990/force_energies.png)), Physics Manipulation (Can direct the course of momentum. Can make an object attract or repel forces (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066838248053288990/force_energies.png). Can alter forces that affect the whole Tellurian. The mage can briefly change how a universal force functions, or even invent an entirely new force. A mage can transmute the nature of a universal force – altering how magnetism works, for instance, or changing the strong nuclear force (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067071731988181002/force_tellurian.png)), Gravity Manipulation (Can direct the course of gravity (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066838248053288990/force_energies.png)), Forcefield Creation (Can create forcefields (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066838248053288990/force_energies.png)), Transmutation (Can change water into air. Can change spirit-stuff into physical energies (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066867000091095110/force_energies2.png). Can transmute one substance into another (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066867000091095110/force_energies2.png)).

66888450957115482/matter_transmutation.png)), Weather Manipulation (Can change weather patterns (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066867985282764810/force_weather.png)), Heat Manipulation (Can drop or raise temperatures (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066867985282764810/force_weather.png)), Earth Manipulation & Vector Manipulation (The mage can move entire continents with Forces. Instead of grabbing or creating individual Forces, the mage collects all forces acting on an object into a single vector and modifies them at whim (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067070369380438036/force_earth.png)), Pocket Reality Manipulation, Dimensional Manipulation (The mage can now move Realms. Mage-made Realms are fairly easy to move, while the larger and more static Realms take a bit more effort. Under the proper circumstances, a mage could alter the apparent positions of various locations in the Umbra, even shoving normally separate Realms into brief contact (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067070921678000238/force_realms.png)), Plant Manipulation & Healing (Can manipulate viruses, mollusks, insects, plants, etc; through their Patterns. Can heal himself or perform certain alterations on his body (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066883672411738152/life_life.png)), Body Control (Can grow gills, claws, armor, etc (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066884457040203826/life_life3.png). The mage can temporarily suppress their own life (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1071031223432003664/mage_body.png)), Sleep Manipulation (Can put organisms to sleep (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066884457040203826/life_life3.png). The mage can rouse the slumbering spirits within objects or places, or else put active spirits to sleep (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067254196195299420/spirit_npi3.png)), Shapeshifting (Can transform into other lifeforms of similar size and mass (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066885827415777300/life_life4.png). Can adopt any form and may transform other organisms the same way (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066886623528243200/life_life5.png)), Age Manipulation (Can radically age or de-age lifeforms (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066886623528243200/life_life5.png)), Soul Manipulation (Can instill lifeforms with spirits (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066886623528243200/life_life5.png). The mage may also compel spirits to appear, bind them into Fetish objects, or tie them to certain spots or prisons. Can also exorcise a spirit that has possessed a mortal host (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066886623528243200/life_life5.png)).

76/1067255119437111296/spirit_npi4.png). The Spirit Master is now able to command ephemera itself, creating, challenging, and destroying spirit matter as he wills. With such power, he may craft Realms, imbue or drain a spirit of Essence, instil a soul within an empty shell of Life or Matter, and bestow the awful sentence of Gilgul – the destruction of a mage's Avatar (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067255892589953125/spirit_npi5.png). The Archmage is now adept enough to weave spirit stuff in almost non-spiritual ways. He can create a "pericarp"— a wall similar to the Gauntlet, through which one must step with Spirit. The pericarp walls off an area, turning it into a tiny Realm of sorts. Although the mage does not actually shift the locale into the spirit world, he does create a membrane of spirit around it. People wishing to cross into the delineated area must pass through the pericarp in some fashion. Creatures with no ability to enter the spirit world find the pericarp to be an impassable, hazy, slightly reflective barrier (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067257620706119781/spirit_realm.png). Can sever a soul from a body (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1071030007679426581/mage_soul.png). Can consume souls and ghosts (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1071046329477910589/mage_soul2.png)), Energy Manipulation (Can directly manipulate the Quintessence flow within subjects and their Patterns, altering their biology in this manner (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067075185531957279/life_prime.png). Can conjure materials from energy or dissolve them into Quintessence (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066888450957115482/matter_transmutation.png). Can channel and absorb Quintessence (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066901866660769833/prime_energy.png). Can divert Quintessence into new or existing forms (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066902592103387146/prime_energy2.png). Can create an hologram made of ephemeral energy (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066902592103387146/prime_energy2.png). By tapping into the flow of Quintessence around her, the Prime-skilled mage can draw both free and raw Quintessence from Nodes, Junctures (special times), and Tass (solidified Quintessence)... and she may also channel that energy into new and existing Patterns as well (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067096420164841502/prime_energy3.png). A Prime Master can draw Quintessence from anywhere, at any time, and channel it into other vessels as well. A dark, vulgar aspect of that power allows her to obliterate a living being by consuming all of his life force, whereas the reverse of that power infuses him with life force so strong that he's essentially blessed (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067096420164841502/prime_energy3.png)).

m/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067241692341731419/prime_energy4.png). The ridiculously vulgar Effect of giving someone else your store of Paradox rarely breaks even. Taking another's load of Paradox is also possible, though hardly desirable. Still, moving around Paradox – shifting the blame, so to speak – is possible with enough esoteric knowledge. the Archmage can channel one point of Paradox away from someone else, causing it to immediately burst into a backlash or even throwing it at a victim who fails to dodge or counter the Effect (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067244123893014648/prime_energy6.png)), Power Bestowal (A mage at this level of Life can now grant others the ability to alter their own forms. By mutating a Life Pattern to contain flexible elements, the mage can give it the ability to change its own nature – whether through a series of static shapeshifting forms or in a random sequence of bizarre transformations (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067076366375333898/life_virus.png). Can consecrate an object with personal energy, changing its properties (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066901866660769833/prime_energy.png). Can enchant a living thing so that it could inflict or endure aggravated damage (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067096420164841502/prime_energy3.png). Can help living creatures to see or contact the spirit realms (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067250057293860935/spirit_npi.png). Can force a victim to suffer Awakening. The Awakening is traumatic enough; a forced Awakening can kill the victim with shock or leave the Avatar damaged and deranged (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067258994604916786/spirit_awake.png). Can grant time immunity to others (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067263754158481488/time_immunity.png)), Invulnerability, Immortality (Types 3 & 8) & Regeneration (High-Godly. The penultimate understanding of Life renders a mage's own Pattern immutable. Only through the mage's will can her Life Pattern be affected. Age and disease are no threats, as with lesser Life mages, but now even physical injury causes no real harm. The mage's Pattern sustains itself regardless of perceived damage. Indeed, the Pattern that was once the mage's life force is now extraneous. The mage simply expands her Life Pattern to tie directly to the Tellurian. No amount of damage can destroy that connection (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067076955796680764/life_immo.png)), Acausality (Type 5. The mage exists completely outside time, being immune from time's passage (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067263754158481488/time_immunity.png). After achieving this Archmastery of Time, the mage no longer exists as a static moment in the present. Instead, his Pattern's entire span of existence is fused into a single "moment" that encompasses the whole age. The mage can "coalesce" to a second and decide to work within the time line at any point. As usual, modifying the time line places the mage in an alternate time stream (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067266728368803912/time_acausal.png)), Time Manipulation (Can move an object through time (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066888450957115482/matter_transmutation.png). Speeding or slowing their relationship with time, the mage can now gain multiple actions, slow other characters or phenomena, or rewind small snatches of time. Can cast effects across distance and time. Can move back (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067261971298254908/time_rewind.png) in time while recalling events from the future they just left (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067262770422226994/time_travel.png). The Archmage can send objects, or even Quintessence, back in time (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067264493727535134/time_past.png)), Time Stop (The mage learns to withdraw herself from the normal flow of time, hold Effects until they get triggered by events, or capture other beings or phenomena in bubbles of time (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067263397978193940/time_stop.png))), Time Travel (Can travel forward or backward through time (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067263754158481488/time_immunity.png))), Time Portals (Can create Time Doors (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067265814224441384/time_door.png))), Deconstruction (Can disintegrate matter into dust (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066890174321139782/matter_deconstruction.png))), Creation (Can create objects out of empty space (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066890701947797605/matter_transmutation2.png). Can create substances that transcend the limitations of scientific possibility. Can conjure materials unknown to Earthly reality (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066893087521112104/matter_creation.png). Can fabricate entire consciousnesses, creating minds where no mind had been before (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066899677166977074/mind_creation.png). Can create objects that cannot be broken (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067240716213944340/prime_drain.png))), Radiation Manipulation (Can create and manipulate radioactive matter (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066893087521112104/matter_creation.png))), Mental Forcefield Creation (The mage can shield their own mind from the thoughts and emotions of other people, constructing mental barriers around his aura, emotions, and consciousness (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066895079127666839/mind_senses.png)), Mind Reading (Can skim through the contents of minds (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066896653447073913/mind_read.png). Can read (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066897469268578396/mind_telepathy.png) other people's thoughts (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066897805853077504/mind_telepathy2.png)), Psychometry (Can read memories that have been left behind on objects or places (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066896653447073913/mind_read.png). The mage can discern at a glance exactly how a creature died and how long ago. Thus, the mage might be able to realize that a cause of death obvious to all modern forensic evidence is in fact a ruse designed to distract from the subject's true cause of death (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1070118653175013376/mage_psychometry.png)), Empathic Manipulation (Can project emotional impulses to other people (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066896653447073913/mind_read.png)), Telepathy (Can forge telepathic communications (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066897469268578396/mind_telepathy.png)), Illusion Creation (Can craft mental illusions (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066897805853077504/mind_telepathy2.png)), Dream Manipulation (Can enter someone's dreams and explore dream Realms (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066897805853077504/mind_telepathy2.png)), Perception Manipulation (Can alter a person's perception (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066898894740541500/mind_mind.png)), Madness Manipulation (Can drive people insane or sane (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066898894740541500/mind_mind.png)), High-Omniscience (The Archmage can delve into their past lives, find amazing insights and remember ancient trials and even more ancient wisdom. They can understand themselves more fully, and sometimes learn useful information about friends or enemies. By reaching into the web of all minds, they tap the pieces of wisdom contained in all waking Avatars. The mage can fuel their mind to traverse the limitless thoughts mirrored in their Avatar, pulling out bits of former lives or reflections of wisdom from other Avatars (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067080680925839450/mind_retro.png). The province of the extremely rare mental Archmasters (or the extremely power hungry), One Mind gives access to all minds. The mage understands the inner workings of all the minds around him. He sees the reflection of every thought in the Quintessential flow of the Tellurian, opening his consciousness to a realm of total intuition. His Mind Pattern, no longer fettered to his Life Pattern, exists independently in the flow of the universal Mind. The mage at this level of Archmastery no longer requires a body. Even if his physical form is killed or his body destroyed, his Mind Pattern remains intact and able to float through any realm of consciousness. The mage can sense the emotions, intents and thoughts of nearly any creature, as with the lesser levels of Mind magic, but can also determine the general flow of multiple Mind Patterns. Thus, with a simple Effect bounded by an area, the mage can identify the tide of emotion over an entire group, the “gestalt mind” of a mob, species or collective (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067082047551709224/mind_mind3.png)), Willpower Manipulation (The mage can expend Quintessence to refresh her Willpower by fortifying her mental Pattern (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067082885598826597/mind_resistance.png)), Statistics Amplification (Can infuse items with Primal Force, strengthening them or enhancing their protective or destructive power (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066902592103387146/prime_energy2.png))), Non-Physical Interaction (Can touch spirits and drain their essence (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067250057293860935/spirit_npi.png). Quintessence can affect spirits (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066902592103387146/prime_energy2.png))), Weapon Creation (Can create temporary weapons out of pure concentrated energy – blasts of Quintessence or swords of light (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067097031732121731/prime_weapon.png))), Absorption (Can drain Quintessence from objects or forces, which in turn disintegrates them (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067240716213944340/prime_drain.png))), Fusionism & Technology Manipulation (Can bond organic and inorganic materials together to create cybernetic implants and nanotech (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067240716213944340/prime_drain.png))), Attack Reflection (The ridiculously vulgar Effect of giving someone else your store of Paradox rarely breaks even. Taking another’s load of Paradox is also possible, though hardly desirable. Still, moving around Paradox – shifting the blame, so to speak – is possible with enough esoteric knowledge. the Archmage can channel one point of Paradox away from someone else, causing it to immediately burst into a backlash or even throwing it at a victim who fails to dodge or counter the Effect (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067244123893014648/prime_energy6.png))), Pocket Reality Manipulation, Law Manipulation (An Archmage at the pinnacle of Prime can also use Quintessence to create a pocket universe. The internal dimensions of this universe, and all other properties, are at the Archmage's discretion; his knowledge of Patterns is the only factor limiting the universe's internal properties. This pocket universe is a small piece of folded space where the Tellurian naturally balls itself off in a sort of protective shell. The mage simply gives the tiny Pattern a spark of creative force, and lets it run (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067244596087767200/prime_tellurian.png)), Elemental Manipulation (Can stir up elemental disturbances within the Otherworlds (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067250057293860935/spirit_npi.png)), Energy Absorption (Can drain the essence of a spirit (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067250057293860935/spirit_npi.png)), Life Absorption (By stealing vigor from incoming attacks, a mage guards himself against harm. Effectively, the mage's shield attacks the vitality of an incoming assault, eroding its forcefulness with a primal decay (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1070142857802944695/mage_ectoplasm_absorption.png). The mage can draw the vigor of life from a person's body, leaving the subject weak and helpless, so that a weight-lifting champion is rendered barely able to lift a child's toy (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/107103166111816232/mage_absorption.png). The mage can steal years of life from a person's life span to extend their own (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1071047161137090682/mage_absorption2.png)), Astral Projection (The mage can cross over, transmuting his living tissue to ephemera (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067254036040003604/spirit_npi2.png)), Non-Corporeal Inducement (The mage can transform themselves into an ephemeral state (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1071045818741698560/mage_noncorporeal.png)), Dimensional Travel (This power also allows the mage to break the Dreamshell and venture beyond the Horizons, wandering into the Deepest of Umbrae (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067255892589953125/spirit_npi5.png)), Summoning (The Archmage can call upon all manner of spirits to aid him and may be able to summon spirits in other places as well (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067257093603733604/spirit_summon.png). The mage calls a specific ghost or sends out a general call to the nearest ghost within sensory range. The mage may either call one or more ghosts personally known to the mage, or the mage may specify any type of ghost of their choosing (male ghosts or child ghosts, for example), or even send out a general summons to all restless shades within the mage's sensory range (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1070143922556371015/mage_summon.png)).

mon.png)), Ectoplasm Manipulation (The mage can alter the form of an ectoplasmic manifestation, shaping it with their will into whatever form they desire (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1070109991299711126/mage_ecto.png). The mage can create ectoplasm from one of their orifices (usually their mouth or nostrils) or the orifice of a corpse. This opaque, white, slick material can be molded to form whatever shape the mage desires (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1070142857802944695/mage_ectoplasm__absorption.png)), Necromancy (Can animate one or more corpses to act as unfailing, devoted slaves (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1071029476303052820/mage_necro.png)), Conceptual Manipulation (Type 1. Can affect Patterns (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067261971298254908/time_rewind.png). Patterns are platonic forms (<https://i.imgur.com/bCkRhkh.png>). Can connect different Patterns to one another across intervening space (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066367607915167866/correspondence_space4.png). The mage can folding a preexisting Pattern to warp its interaction with space (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067059964973162537/correspondence_space6.png). The mage can alter ideas, strengthening or breaking down concepts (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066384347109801984/entropy_concept.png). Can control the evolution of species through their Patterns (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067065461784715324/entropy_bio.png). Can manipulate viruses, mollusks, insects, plants, etc; through their Patterns (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066883672411738152/life_life.png). Can inflict harm upon a being's Pattern form (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066884457040203826/life_life3.png). While an Archmaster of Life has previously been able to mutate her Life Pattern at will, now he can transform others into forms of life he has studied before with no loss of the subject's intelligence. Even Masters of Life cannot create completely new forms of life, but with this understanding, an Archmage can create a Pattern that has no relation to any creature he has ever seen before. The Archmaster can also make Life Patterns that have unique properties not normally found in natural life – Patterns that subsist on base matter, that are unaffected by certain Forces or Matter Effects, or that interact with other life in strange and unpredictable ways. Strange new Patterns of Life can be created just like other life forms are made with lesser Life magic, and the mage can specify how they interact with other Patterns. Similarly, the mage can transform other life forms just as he could transform himself with his own Life Mastery, into nearly any form of creature with no loss of native intellect. Furthermore, massive Pattern manipulations are easier. The mage can affect whole groups of Patterns without difficulty, attaching a single Effect to all of them – healing everyone in an area or transforming a group of animals – just as easily as she could change a single creature (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067074087479935006/life_life6.png). Can directly manipulate the Quintessence flow within subjects and their Patterns, altering their biology in this manner (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067075185531957279/life_prime.png). By mutating a Life Pattern to contain flexible elements, the mage can give it the ability to change its own nature – whether through a series of static shapeshifting forms or in a random sequence of bizarre transformations (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067076366375333898/life_virus.png). Can awaken slumbering spirits within material objects (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066888450957115482/matter_transmutation.png). Archmastery of meta-Patterns allows an Archmage to exceed the normal bounds of scale that lesser magics enforce. Instead of creating individual Patterns, the mage creates a form that holds multiple replicating Patterns. For instance, instead of just creating a brick, the mage builds a Pattern for a Pattern, using a template of a castle and recursively filling it with bricks (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067079705183916072/matter_pattern2.png). The mage can create Matter Patterns that respond not to other physical Pattern forms but to etheric Patterns such as Mind. These Patterns alter their properties according to their pre-programmed responses to Mind or Spirit impulses. Thus, the mage can make Patterns that have certain properties to one person and different properties to another. The supreme Archmaster's command of Matter is so great that her creations appear differently to those who view them. She can have material properties, for instance, that are poisonous to specific Natures or Essences. The Matter Patterns can be keyed to respond to certain Spirit Effects or emanations of Prime, as desired (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067079933643456602/matter_pattern3.png). The mage can expend Quintessence to refresh their Willpower by fortifying their mental Pattern (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067082885598826597/mind_resistance.png). The province of the extremely rare mental Archmasters (or the extremely power hungry), One Mind gives access to all minds. The mage understands the inner workings of all the minds around him. He sees the reflection of every thought in the Quintessential flow of the Tellurian, opening his consciousness to a realm of total intuition. His Mind Pattern, no longer fettered to his Life Pattern, exists independently in the flow of the universal Mind. The mage at this level of Archmastery no longer requires a body. Even if his physical form is killed or his body destroyed, his Mind Pattern remains intact and able to float through any realm of consciousness. The mage can sense the emotions, intents and thoughts of nearly any creature, as with the lesser levels of Mind magic, but can also determine the general flow of multiple Mind Patterns. Thus, with a simple Effect bounded by an area, the mage can identify the tide of emotion over an entire group, the “gestalt mind” of a mob, species or collective (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067082047551709224/mind_mind3.png). Can channel and absorb Quintessence (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066901866660769833/prime_energy.png). Can divert Quintessence into new or existing forms (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1066902592103387146/prime_energy2.png). By tapping into the flow of Quintessence around her, the Prime-skilled mage can draw both free and raw Quintessence from Nodes, Junctures (special times), and Tass (solidified Quintessence)... and she may also channel that energy into new and existing Patterns as well (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067096420164841502/prime_energy3.png). Can drain Quintessence from objects or forces, which in turn disintegrates them (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067240716213944340/prime_drain.png). A Prime Master can draw Quintessence from anywhere, at any time, and channel it into other vessels as well. A dark, vulgar aspect of that power allows her to obliterate a living being by consuming all of his life force, whereas the reverse of that power infuses him with life force so strong that he’s essentially blessed (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067241692341731419/prime_energy4.png). By understanding the true nature of Prime, an Archmage can access supposedly “inviolate” Quintessence. The Archmage can tap directly into another person’s Avatar and harness the stored Quintessence. The mage can even direct Paradox at his enemies, increasing the severity of reality backlashes and creating disturbances that nullify magic. An Archmage can access another mage’s stores of Quintessence by making a Prime attack. He need only use his Prime as a directed Effect. Furthermore, the mage can amplify the severity of Paradox backlashes, using a fast (non-cumulative, non-extended) Effect to add his successes to the Paradox Pool of a backlash. The mage can even cause Paradox to turn and strike a different target, using the guidelines for altering Forces (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067243276442288199/prime_energy5.png). The ridiculously vulgar Effect of giving someone else your store of Paradox rarely breaks even. Taking another’s load of Paradox is also possible, though hardly desirable. Still, moving around Paradox – shifting the blame, so to speak – is possible with enough esoteric knowledge. the Archmage can channel one point of Paradox away from someone else, causing it to immediately burst into a backlash or even throwing it at a victim who fails to dodge or counter the Effect (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067244123893014648/prime_energy6.png). At this Rank, a mortal mage can also harm an Umbral entity as if he was using Life 3 against that entity. While Spirit 2 allows the mage to touch that entity, Spirit 3 lets him actually damage its ephemeral Pattern's integrity the way that Life 3 damages a physical creature's form (https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1065794048037748776/1067254196195299420/spirit_npi3.png), and many more.
